Harbour Underwriting is one of the leading providers of commercial dispute insurance for both claimants and defendants.

We provide bespoke insurance solutions to brokers, law firms, funders, advisors and corporates to help reduce the financial risks of litigation and arbitration. After the Event (ATE) insurance is a fundamental tool for mitigating the costs involved in disputes, giving you and your clients the confidence to pursue or defend the claim.

We have an expert team of underwriters who will listen and help simplify the process of using ATE insurance.

Harbour Underwriting provides flexible insurance products which:

- / Cover all forms of dispute resolution
- / Can be purchased by a claimant or defendant
- / Can be purchased at any stage during the litigation process
- / Are available for all types of claim funding - self-funded, via litigation funding and contingency arrangements including damages based agreements and contingent fee agreements
- / Can each be purchased standalone or in any combination of adverse costs cover, own side disbursements and own side solicitor's fees cover

Working with us

Harbour Underwriting wants to reduce any complexity associated with purchasing ATE insurance.

We want to make working together as easy as possible. Our experts are always on hand to answer your questions and to consider your case, no matter how early or late in the process you are. We are here to provide you with a flexible solution tailored to the individual needs of your case.

What we look for

We are naturally selective about the cases we insure.

There are six initial underwriting questions that we consider to see whether we can help you:

1. Is it a commercial dispute?
2. Is the limit of indemnity at least £150k?
3. Are the prospects of success better than even?
4. Does the legal team have the relevant experience?
5. Where is the proposer domiciled?
6. Are there sufficient funds to finance the dispute?

If you are in any doubt, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Our team

We are committed to listening to you and delivering the products and services you need. Our underwriters are seasoned commercial litigators with a wealth of experience that they are waiting to share with you.
